

HEPATITIS B VACCINE DECLINATION

California State University, Fullerton, is required by law to assure that employees who decline to accept the hepatitis B vaccination offered by the campus sign the following statement as required by California Code of Regulations, Title 8, section 5193, subsection

(f) (2) (D):

I understand that due to my occupational exposure to blood or other potentially infectious materials (OPIM), I may be at risk of acquiring hepatitis B virus (HBV) infection. I have been given the opportunity to be vaccinated with hepatitis B vaccine, at no charge to myself. However, I decline the hepatitis B vaccine at this time. I understand that by declining this vaccine, I continue to be at risk of acquiring hepatitis B, a serious disease. If in the future I continue to have occupational exposure to blood or other potentially infectious materials (OPIM) and I want to be vaccinated with hepatitis B vaccine, I can receive the vaccination series at no charge to me.

(Note: Authority cited: Section 142.3 and 144.7, Labor Code)

I have been advised that in the course of my employment as a _____ with (position held)
California State University, Fullerton, I may be exposed or have the potential for exposure to hepatitis B Virus (HBV).

The risks associated with receiving or not receiving the vaccination have been explained to me.
